LANGUAGE COURSES

Target groups

Individuals

I offer private individual or group courses at home or online via Skype to anyone who wants to learn from scratch a foreign language or refresh the knowledge of a language learned at school for personal culture, for passion, for professional reasons or to achieve linguistic certifications.

Companies

I can organize corporate language courses aimed at using a language in everyday work.

Children (from 3 to 12 years)

For children aged 3 to 12 there is the possibility to learn languages with an innovative educational playing method. Courses can take place outside of school hours at home or in nursery, primary and secondary schools, with which I sign contracts as an external teacher of foreign languages.

During school holidays, language camps (e.g. summer camps) can be arranged on request.
